

A Hidden Treasure: Art Inspired by Palmer Arboretum Call to Artists

The Gallery at Loos Center for the Arts
150 Route 169, Woodstock, CT 06281

Loos Center for the Arts at The Woodstock Academy and Palmer Arboretum are partnering to create a gallery show displaying artwork inspired by the beautiful flowers and plants in the Arboretum. Palmer Arboretum is a beautiful park located behind Palmer Memorial Hall on Woodstock Hill. The Arboretum includes many beautiful flowers and trees such as cypress, flowering azalea, Arnold Palmer Witch Hazel, Paper Bark Maple, Royal Star Magnolia, Mountain Laurel, and more.

Artists are invited to submit any artwork inspired by the Palmer Arboretum for this show. All media accepted and encouraged.

Please complete this form and return to Rachael Budd, director of the gallery, at gallery@theloos.org. Submission forms are due by July 1.

Show Dates: Opens July 21- September 16

Opening Reception: July 21 from 5:00 p.m.-7:00 p.m. at Loos Center for the Arts

Drop off: Artwork should be dropped off at Loos Center for the Arts on July 10 from 3-5 p.m. (or by appointment)

- 1-3 pieces of artwork inspired by Palmer Arboretum
- Artwork should be ready to hang
- Artwork should be labeled with the title, year it was made, materials used, and price (if it is available for sale)
- A short artist bio

Pick up: Artwork should be picked up on September 16 from 3:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m. (or by appointment)

Artwork Sales: All artwork sales will be facilitated by the gallery director and go through the artist. Artists are asked to make a gift of 30% back to The Woodstock Academy in the form of a check. Please write "gallery" in the memo.

The Gallery at Loos Center for the Arts is fully insured for the listed value of the artwork.

The Gallery at Loos Center for the Arts reserves the right to select pieces of work to hang that best fit the theme and spirit of the show. Every piece submitted may not be included.
