

Lois Banister House

Lois Banister (Ezra Lyons) House on the 1856 Woodford map of Windham County.

Also known as the Ezra Lyons House, the circa 1803 one-story, Cape Cod- style house is on Center Road in West Woodstock. Over the past 200+ years, the house and surrounding 2-acre property have served as a private residence (most notably of the Marcy family), a working farm, and a shoe shop. For more information about the Lois Banister House, please visit the Preservation Connecticut website.

The Lois Banister House was designated a Local Historic Property in December 1991.

View of the Lois Banister House from Center Road, view north.